The Missing Cappy!

Mika and Sutheep Detectives

TIME • MEMORY • REFLECTION • STORIES • REMEMBRANCE

How did this happen?

Dalgi Joe the Capybara got kidnapped on Tuesday, 29th September Monday. This happened when Ms.Temple went to the bathroom; the kidnapper stole Dalgi Joe. While Ms.Temple was sobbing, the courageous Mika and Sutheep are cracking the case! So now we need to find the clues. We found ph, chromatography, clues, suspects, and more let go Crime scene and what did we do?

We found Dalgi Joe's hat, a die, a Messi key chain, a cup of lemon tea, a note from the kidnapper, a pen, and a puzzle piece fingerprint. First, we found the pH level of the lemon tea. The pH level was 3. Then they found a fingerprint! They used chromatography on the fingerprint. We made our suspects put their fingerprints, then we identified whose it was. We used all our geniusly brain and got main three suspect. 1. Mr. Browning 2. Miss Staines 3. Miss Yujin. Our suspects began to run, and we tackled them and caught them. We took them to our place and asked them firmly.
